ART & WORKSHOPS

EXPRESSIONS AT TIHAR

Ramchander Nath Foundation (RNF) and Ojas Art have been working in Tihar Jail, with 18 to 21-year-old inmates since 2007. Through their programme titled Expressions, they use art as a tool for reformation and rehabilitation of these inmates. And Expressions at Tihar, an exhibition of paintings, is a result of these interactive sessions between the inmates and artists such as including Gigi Scaria, Raghu Rai, Shiv Verma, Chintan Upadhyay, Riyas Komu and Donovan Wodehouse among other artists.

OPENING OF EXPRESSIONS EXHIBITION. 6 pm
 August 12

MEDITATION RETREAT. Vipassana meditation as taught by SN Goenka. Vipassana was first introduced at Tihar in 1993. In 2008, more than 600 inmates benefited from Vipassana.

August 16
WORKSHOP WITH CRECHE KIDS FROM TIHAR. India Vision Foundation, an initiative started by Kiran Bedi, to provide education and rehabilitation to children of prisoners. This workshop lets children, living in IVF homes explore art as a medium of expression.

August 21
ART OF LIVING WORKSHOP. The initiative started in Tihar in 1999, and since then 30,000 inmates have experienced and benefited from it.
